

MAXIM

TRAVEL LIKE JAMES BOND WITH THIS EXCLUSIVE LUXURY GETAWAY EXPERIENCE

Channel 007 on a European trip that includes everything from a high-speed boat ride on the Thames (with a Bond stunt coordinator) to a night at a Monte Carlo casino.

The incomparably mysterious, exotic, jet-setting appeal of James Bond might seem far out of reach on the big screen, but it's a bit more attainable— at least to a lucky few— with a new luxury travel experience from Black Tomato.

The Assignment: Europe just launched in partnership with Bond producers EON Productions, offering an astonishing level of access into 007's world through experiences pulled right from films like Skyfall, Casino Royale and Spectre, among other Bond adventures.

It's a dream opportunity for any James Bond superfan, a laundry list of tailormade experiences that spans anywhere from five days to 12 days, with prices starting at $18,000 (the full 12-night experience runs about $74,500).

A stop in France even includes the rare chance to visit the home of 007's champagne of choice, the Champagne Bollinger Chateau and Estate.