10 Last-Minute Bottles of Wine to Gift Mom for Mother's Day

It's the very last minute, and you still haven't bought your mom something for Mother's Day. But don't worry because I'm in the same boat, which is why I put together a list of some excellent wines that will be in your mom's hands by Sunday. Whether she loves to toast with bubbly or prefers a velvety red, there's something here to please every palate.

Château Minuty Prestige Rosé

I'll never turn down a Provence rosé, as they call to mind lazy lunches spent seaside and summer rooftop soirees. Château Minuty is one of the region's most well-known wineries, and when its Prestige Rosé is paired with oysters, it will transport you straight to le Midi.
